Personal information does not include:

- Publicly available information that is lawfully made available from government records, that a consumer has otherwise made available to the public.
- De-identified or aggregated consumer information.
- Information excluded from the CCPA's or CPRA's scope, like:
 - Health or medical information covered by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPPA) and the California Confidentiality of Medical Information Act (CMIA) or clinical trial data;
 - Personal information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, including the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (GLBA) or California Financial Information Privacy Act (FIPA) and the Driver's Privacy Protection Act of 1994.

We obtain the categories of personal information listed above from the following categories of sources:

- Directly from you or your authorized parties or agents. Authorized parties or agents includes, but is not limited to, parties such as attorneys, guardians, and those with powers of attorney. For example, from forms you complete on our website.
- Indirectly from you. For example, from observing your actions on our website or job application portal.
- Affiliates;
- Service providers;
- Our websites and mobile apps, or any time you visit, use, or interact with any of the features or services available on our mobile or online applications; and
- Data analytics providers.

Use Of Personal Information

We may use or disclose the personal information we collect for one or more of the following business purposes:

- To fulfil or meet the reason you provided the information. For example, if you share your name, contact information, and resume to be considered for a job posting, we will use that personal information in evaluating your qualifications for that position.
- To provide you with information, products or services that you request from us;
- To provide you with support and respond to your inquiries, including to investigate your concerns and monitor and improve our responses.

- To provide you with email alerts, event registrations and other notices concerning our products or services, or events or news, that may be of interest to you;
- To carry out our obligations and enforce our rights arising from any contracts entered into between you and us, including for billing and collections;
- To improve our website and present its contents to you;
- For testing, research, analysis and product development;
- As necessary or appropriate to protect the rights, property or safety of us, yours or others;
- To respond to law enforcement requests and as required by applicable law, court order, or government regulations.
- As described to you when collecting your personal information or as otherwise set forth in the CCPA and CPRA.
- To evaluate or conduct a merger, divestiture, restructuring, reorganization, dissolution, or other sale or transfer of some or all of our assets, whether as a going concern or as part of bankruptcy, liquidation, or similar proceeding, in which personal information held by us is among the assets transferred.
- We will not collect additional categories of personal information or use the personal information we collected for materially different, unrelated, or incompatible purposes without providing you notice.

Disclosing Personal Information

We may disclose your personal information to a contractor or service provider for a business purpose. When we disclose personal information for a business purpose, we enter a contract that describes the purpose and requires the recipient to both keep that personal information confidential and not use it for any purpose except performing the contract.

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we have disclosed the following categories (corresponding with the table above) of personal information for a business purpose: Category A, Category B, Category D, Category F, Category G and Category I D

We disclose your personal information with the following categories of third parties: our clients, our service providers (which include non-affiliated entities providing operating systems, platforms and other services to support day-to-day operations), advertising networks; Data analytics providers, Government, regulatory, or legal authorities; and third parties to whom you or your agents authorize us to disclose your personal information in connection with services we provide to you.

In the preceding twelve (12) months, we have not sold or shared any personal information.

Sharing And Sale Of Personal Information

We do not "sell" or "share" your personal information and have not "sold" or "shared" personal information relating to you within the meaning of the CCPA within the past 12 months. For the purposes of CCPA, we only disclose personal information that you intentionally direct us to.

In the past twelve (12) months, we have disclosed the following categories of personal information for our business purposes:

- Identifiers;
- California Customer Records;
- Commercial information;

Your Rights And Choices

The CCPA and CPRA provide California residents with specific rights regarding their personal information. This section describes your CCPA and CRPA rights and explains how to exercise those rights.

Access to Specific Information and Data Portability Rights

You have the right to request that we disclose certain information to you about our collection and use of your personal and sensitive information unless responding to the request is impossible or involves disproportionate effort. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable request, we will disclose to you:

- The categories of personal information and sensitive information we collected about you.
- The categories of sources for the personal and sensitive information we collected about you.
- Our business or commercial purpose for collecting, using and/or disclosing that information.
- The categories of third parties, contractors and service providers with whom we share, sell or disclose that personal information.
- The specific pieces of personal information we collected about you (also called a data portability request).
- If we disclosed your personal information for a business purpose, a list of those disclosures, identifying the personal information categories that each category of recipient obtained.

- Whether your information is sold or shared.
- The retention period or criteria used for retention.

Deletion Request Rights

You have the right to request that we delete any of your personal information that we collected from you and retained, subject to certain exceptions. Once we receive and confirm your verifiable request, we will delete (and direct our service providers to delete) your personal information from our records, but this right does not apply where Medius needs to retain the personal information in order to provide goods or services to you, detect or resolve security issues or functionality-related issues, comply with the law, and carry out internal business requirements.

We may deny your deletion request if retaining the information is necessary for us or our service provider(s) to:

- Complete the transaction for which we collected the personal information, provide a good or service that you requested, take actions reasonably anticipated within the context of our ongoing business relationship with you, or otherwise perform our contract with you.
- Help to ensure security and integrity to the extent the use of the consumer's personal information is reasonably necessary and proportionate for those purposes.
- Debug products to identify and repair errors that impair existing intended functionality.
- Exercise free speech, ensure the right of another consumer to exercise their free speech rights, or exercise another right provided for by law.
- Comply with the California Electronic Communications Privacy Act (Cal. Penal Code § 1546 et. seq.).
- Engage in public or peer-reviewed scientific, historical, or statistical research in the public interest that adheres to all other applicable ethics and privacy laws, when the information's deletion may likely render impossible or seriously impair the research's achievement, if you previously provided informed consent.
- Enable solely internal uses that are reasonably aligned with consumer expectations based on your relationship with us.
- Comply with a legal obligation.

Exercising Access, Data Portability, Opt-In, Opt-out, and Deletion Rights

If you would like to exercise any of the rights described above, you may do so directly through our Privacy Inquiries & Requests or via privacy@medius.com. Only you or a person registered with the California Secretary of State that you authorize to act on your behalf, may make a verifiable request related to your personal information. You may also make a verifiable request on behalf of your minor child.

You may only make a verifiable request for access or data portability twice within a 12-month period. The verifiable request must:

- Provide enough information that allows us to reasonably verify you are the person about whom we collected personal information or an authorized representative.
- Describe your request with sufficient detail that allows us to properly understand, evaluate, and respond to it.

We cannot respond to your request or provide you with personal information if we cannot verify your identity or authority to make the request and confirm the personal information relates to you. We will only use personal information provided in a verifiable request to confirm the requestor's identity or authority to make the request.

Response Timing and Format

We endeavour to respond to a verifiable request within thirty (30) days of its receipt. If we require more time, we will inform you of the reason and extension period in writing. We will deliver our written response by mail or electronically, at your option. Any disclosures we provide will only cover the 12-month period preceding the verifiable request's receipt. The response we provide will also explain the reasons we cannot comply with a request, if applicable. For data portability requests, we will select a format to provide your personal information that is readily useable and should allow you to transmit the information from one entity to another entity without hindrance, specifically by electronic mail communication.

We do not charge a fee to process or respond to your verifiable request unless it is excessive, repetitive, or manifestly unfounded. If we determine that the request warrants a fee, we will tell you why we made that decision and provide you with a cost estimate before completing your request.

Personal Information Sales

Medius does not sell your personal information.

Non-Discrimination

We will not discriminate against you for exercising any of your CCPA or CPRA rights. Unless permitted by the CCPA or CPRA, we will not:

- Deny you services.
- Provide you a different level of service.
- Discriminate in making employment decisions.

California's "Shine the Light" law (Civil Code Section § 1798.83) permits employees that are California residents to request certain information regarding our disclosure of personal information to third parties for their direct marketing purposes. To make such a request, please send us an electronic message via privacy@Medius.com

How Long Do We Retain Your Personal Data

We retain your personal data for as long as it is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, or longer if required to fulfil our legal and contractual obligations. After expiration of the retention period, your personal data will be deleted. If We are unable to completely delete the personal data from our systems, We will ensure that there are appropriate measures in place to secure the information and protect it from further use.
